

Lincoln Uinta Child Development Association

Lincoln Uinta Child Development Association (LUCDA) is a two-county, five site program providing home based early intervention to children birth through three, and preschool, Head Start and Developmental Disabilities services to children ages three through five.

A variety of services are offered through LUCDA, including:

- Nationally Accredited Preschool (NAEYC)
- Developmental Screening
- Developmental Assessment
- Head Start
- Disability Services

